

Curriculum provided by GAA that will be brought home each week:

Kindergarten- Math with Confidence K Student Book & Teacher's Manual

First Grade- Math with Confidence 1 Student Book & Teacher's Manual

Second Grade- Math with Confidence 2 Student Book & Teacher's Manual

Third & Fourth Grade- Math U See Student Book and Online Access, Visits to North America (Geography), America Our Stories 1 (One per family), Our Neighbors Their Stories (One per Family)

Fifth & Sixth Grade (Wednesday)- Math U See Student Book and Online Access, Visits to North America (Geography), Science in the Scientific Revolution Textbook

Fifth & Sixth Grade (Thursday)- Math U See Student Book and Online Access, America Our Stories 1 (One per family), Our Neighbors Their Stories (One per Family), IEW US History Based Writing Lessons Student Book

Seventh & Eighth Grade (Wednesday)- Math U See Student Book and Online Access, Visits to North America (Geography), Science in the Atomic Age Textbook

Seventh & Eighth Grade (Thursday)- Math U See Student Book and Online Access, America Our Stories 1 (One per family), Our Neighbors Their Stories (One per Family), IEW US History Based Writing Lessons Student Book

Curriculum NOT provided by GAA but will be strongly recommended and included in various lesson plans sent home:

Kindergarten- Logic of English Foundations A & B Teacher's Manual and Student Workbook along with any other optional supplemental materials you may find helpful (Flash Cards, Readers, Phonogram Tiles, Game Cards, etc.)

First Grade- Logic of English Foundations C Teacher's Manual & Student Workbook along with any other optional supplemental materials you may find helpful (Flash Cards, Readers, Phonogram Tiles, Game Cards, etc.)

Second Grade- Logic of English Foundations D Teacher's Manual & Student Workbook along with any other optional supplemental materials you may find helpful (Flash Cards, Readers, Phonogram Tiles, Game Cards, etc.)

Third & Fourth Grade- Logic of English Essentials 1-7 (possibly 8-15 for a later semester) Teacher's Manual & Student Workbook along with any other optional supplemental materials you may find helpful (Flash Cards, Spelling Journal, Phonogram Tiles, Game Cards, etc.)

Fifth-Eighth Grade- Living books from the provided book lists (can be borrowed from the library or purchased new or used)

Curriculum recommended for at home, if desired, but will not be assigned from GAA:

Kindergarten

- Bible- Jesus Storybook Bible
- Handwriting- Handwriting Without Tears
- *Science- Masterbooks Adventures in the World Around Me

First Grade

- Bible- Where Faith Grows Level 1
- Handwriting- Handwriting Without Tears
- *Science- Masterbooks Adventures in Creation
- *History- Notgrass Our Star-Spangled Story Book 1 OR Notgrass Our 50 States (Half Book)

Second Grade

- Bible- Where Faith Grows 2
- Handwriting- Handwriting Without Tears
- *Science- Adventures in the Physical World
- *History- Notgrass Our Star-Spangled Story Book 2 OR Notgrass Our 50 States (Half Book)

Third Grade

- Bible- More Than Words 1 (Half Book)
- *Science- Adventures on Planet Earth

Fourth Grade

- Bible- More Than Words 1 (Half Book)
- *Science- Adventures in the Scientific Method

Fifth-Eighth Grade

- Bible- Masterbooks More Than Words Level 2 OR Foundations in Faith
- Language Arts- Using Language Well OR Easy Grammar OR Learning Language Arts Through Literature
- Elective ideas for at home- Typing, Foreign Language, Health, Life Skills, Handicrafts, Critical Thinking/Logic, Home Economics, etc.

*We cover these areas two times per week in class which is adequate for this level of learning. However, if your student takes a special interest in history and/or science and wants to dive deeper into any of those topics, you can look into any of the ones listed above, linked on our site, or another book/program of your choice.